JUDGING PROCESS

1st Round Judging

QTIC will receive all applications and once nominations have closed, judges will be provided access to their category online. The judges will then review the nominations for their category and place a score against each category. The Judging Panel consists of six judges, two per category, from industry. The panel will shortlist finalists for each category based on completed submissions.

2nd Round Judging

Shortlisted finalists will be invited to participate in 2nd round of judging that will consist of:
- an online interview though a webinar,
- theory test submitted electronically through Judgify
- practical evaluation through a series of videos submitted through Judgify

The online interview will be conducted by two judges in the relevant category on Monday the 6 July 2020. A QTIC team member will contact the finalists to schedule the interview.

Category winners will be announced at the Salute to Excellence Awards -online event being held on Monday 27 July 2020 as an online event. Further information will be provided to finalists.

APPENDIX 2 – CONSENT FORM

Explanatory Notes
The following explanatory notes apply, except where conditions or limitations are imposed on the consent in section three (3). Where conditions or limitations are imposed, the notes are read subject to those conditions.

What is this consent for?
This consent form authorises Queensland Tourism Industry Council (QTIC) to use your images or recordings, together with information about your participation in QTIC initiatives, in publications, productions and presentations in connection with the department’s work. The consent extends to use of the image or recording in whole or part and digital adaptations used alone or in conjunction with words, drawings and other images.

What sort of publications could this material appear in?
This material can appear in any medium and may include television or outdoor advertising, videos, brochures, forms, public relations displays, annual reports, press advertising, internal documents such as manuals, web sites, certificates, strategic plan, posters and professional material and other government departments and agencies to promotes the QTIC programs, as well as education, training and the arts generally.

Who is a minor?
A minor is defined as any person who has not yet turned 18 years of age.

Who is a person with a decision-making disability?
If a person is an adult and unable to give consent, an authorised decision-maker must give consent on the person’s behalf (see for example Powers and Attorney Act 1998 and/or the Guardianship and Administration Act 2000).

What happens to the consent form once it is filled out?
The Consent Form is retained by QTIC and will be placed on file. A copy can be provided to you upon request.

How long will this material be retained by the Queensland Tourism Industry Council?
This authorises QTIC to retain and use the photographs and other material until you withdraw this consent in writing to the departmental contact listed on the consent form.

Withdrawal of consent applies only to subsequent use of the image/s and other material. It does not apply to existing matter in which the image/s and other material already appear.

Privacy information:
Queensland Tourism Industry Council is collecting the information contained in this form to verify your consent for use of your image or recording for the purposes contained in the consent form. Only authorised departmental officers have access to this information. From time to time the department may provide some, or all, of this material to other government departments and agencies, or to recognise media outlets for their use to promote education, training and arts programs, services and initiatives as outlined above. Your personal information will not be disclosed to any other third party without your consent, unless authorised or required by law. If you have any queries about any privacy issues that relate to this consent form then please contact the departmental contact listed on the consent form.
