Celebrating employers dedicated to our tourism & hospitality workforce

At the 25th Salute to Excellence Award, the Queensland Tourism Industry Council is recognising employers who excel in providing students with training opportunities in the fields of cookery, hospitality, or tourism.

Bringing together dedicated employers from across Queensland, the Salute to Excellence Awards celebrate those individuals and businesses committed to providing secondary students with outstanding opportunities and support through school-based traineeships and apprenticeships.

With fantastic prizes on offer and the opportunity to demonstrate your organisation's position as an employer of choice and your commitment to our future workforce, nominate now for the chance to be named the 2022 Salute to Excellence Employer of the Year.
