Welcome

At the Queensland Tourism Industry Council (QTIC), our focus is to help your business grow and succeed, and to help operators and tourism professionals have a thriving tourism, hospitality, and events industry.

If we keep doing the work we do, Queensland's tourism industry will continue to support over 64,000 businesses, over 200,000 jobs and will continue growing our state's economy by more than $33 billion a year.

Despite these big numbers and successes, times are tough for many operators and businesses. It's during these challenges that our tourism community works best by having a strong and unified voice, and by ensuring that we have the resources, tools, and funding needed to succeed and grow.

This year, we've got an exciting agenda to help businesses like yours enjoy new successes. And we've got a seat at the table that ensures your voice is and always will be heard.

QTIC membership is open to businesses, associations, and individuals. With a variety of membership options to suit everyone, QTIC will support your growth, connect you with industry and help you to shape the future of tourism.

As a QTIC member, you are part of Queensland's tourism family, and you will be looked after.

We look forward to welcoming you as a member in the new financial year. Our QTIC team can't wait to work with and for you.

Brett Fraser
CEO, QTIC

What we do

Helping the Queensland tourism industry grow

For more than 20 years, QTIC has been Queensland's trusted voice backing tourism and hospitality operators.

We work closely with all levels of government to ensure the needs and views of Queensland tourism operators are considered in government decision making.

We work with decision makers to address and resolve issues faced by tourism operators, individually and collectively.

We work with industry bodies and sector organisations across the country to build new opportunities, drive investment and create a workforce for the future.

"QTIC membership has been a great investment for us. They help us put a voice forward when we need advocacy. We wouldn't be able to achieve that by ourselves."

- Verena Olesch, Maleny Botanic Gardens & Bird World

Helping your business grow

Our goal is to bring the world to Queensland, creating more opportunities for tourism operators across the state. We are committed to helping you build your business, grow your business and sustain your business.

We offer many programs and services to support this growth.

We deliver a suite of programs to support businesses in attracting, retaining and on-boarding a skilled workforce. We provide programs to support career development, industry training and education including the Young Professionals Mentoring Program, the Registered Trade Skills Program and more.

Events

QTIC provides a range of networking events, industry functions and online information sessions that support businesses and connect them with their wider industry. We also host several of the state's biggest tourism events, including the annual Queensland Tourism Awards.

Indigenous tourism sector

We are proud advocates for Queensland's Indigenous tourism sector. We connect the tourism industry with community and First Nations organisations through programs, resources and educational tools, including QTIC's Indigenous Champions Network, Destination IQ and Annual NAIDOC activities.

“Being a member of QTIC has meant that we can engage with the wider tourism community through networking events and functions. We're able to connect with our colleagues and peers and have those important conversations.”

- Sam Jarmy, Riverlife and Event Centre

“Being a QTIC accredited business, particularly being a First Nations operator, provides leverage for our small business. People are looking for quality and authenticity and this is what QTIC accreditation provides.”

- Jo Connolly, Dreamtime Kullilla-Art
