

2022 Judging Panel Member

ANGELA SLATER

Possessing senior leadership experience across marketing, sales and communications Angela has worked for some of Australia's leading tourism and major events organisations over the past 20 years.

Angela started her post graduate career at the Santa Barbara International Film Festival in the US in 1998 and since then has moved across the various sectors of tourism in Australia from adventure and backpacker travel to major tourist attractions, hotels and resorts and cultural tourism, to Queensland Performing Arts Centre in Brisbane 2012-2020.

Some career highlights include her executive level positions at BridgeClimb Sydney leading Marketing, her time running her own consultancy Passion Marketing and in Marketing Services at Accor's Novotel Twin Waters Resort. Major event involvement includes the Sydney Olympics 2000 where her role in welcoming over 300 media to the top of the Sydney Harbour Bridge in two weeks earned BridgeClimb Sydney a national tourism award for best marketing campaign, the Oprah visit and her viewer BridgeClimb moment, 75th Anniversary of the Sydney Harbour Bridge, and more recently the QPAC International Series (The Royal Ballet, Bolshoi Ballet, La Scala Ballet and American Ballet Theatre Queensland exclusive seasons).

Angela now resides in the southern country Queensland and is developing her own business delivering workshops that help organisations improve their approach to strategic planning, leadership and team development.

QUEENSLAND
TOURISM INDUSTRY
COUNCIL