

2021 Judging Panel Member

TREVOR RAWNSLEY Chief Executive Officer – ARAMA

Chief Executive Officer of ARAMA (Australian Resident Accommodation Managers Association). ARAMA is the Peak Industry Body which represents the interests of people who are involved in Management Rights.

As CEO, Trevor is responsible for the financial performance of the association, member liaison and operational advice, corporate partner/sponsorship liaison, organising branch, State and National committees and producing members educational and information events. As CEO, Trevor is also responsible for liaising with Government representatives and other key industry stakeholders and for facilitating submissions to Government.

Prior to his current role Trevor and his Wife Kate were the owner operators of two management rights holidays complexes on the Gold Coast, a two story walk up at Nobby Beach and a high-rise tower in downtown Surfers Paradise.

